

Moving Forward, Looking Back

THURSDAY, MARCH 27, 2025
6PM – 9PM
GRAND BOHEMIAN CHARLOTTE
201 W. TRADE STREET

Overview

Join us for an extraordinary evening celebrating the transformative work of the Levine Museum of the New South.

Enjoy cocktails, a reception, and dinner as we delve into the importance of understanding history and its powerful role in shaping our community and the world.

We are honored to welcome a distinguished panel of Charlotte leaders, including:

Clarence Armbrister
*Past President
Johnson C. Smith
University*

Malcomb Coley
*Central Region Private Leader
Ernst & Young*

Mark Reed
*Managing Director
John M. Belk Endowment*

Kieth Cockrell
*President
Bank of America, Charlotte*

Dan Lugo
*President
Queens University*

The evening will feature a compelling short documentary chronicling their journey to Alabama, including visits to Selma and the Legacy Museum. Following the screening, our panelists will share their reflections and insights, offering a unique perspective on the transformative power of these historic sites.

You'll also hear about opportunities to sponsor a group of students on a similar journey, providing them with the chance to engage deeply with history and shape a brighter future. At the same time, discover how you can join a future trip yourself and experience the profound impact of this journey firsthand.

Join us for an inspiring evening of stories, conversations, and connection. Together, we can ensure that history continues to educate, inspire, and bring communities together.
